This is an application filed by one R.N. Banerjee on behalf of Atreyee Chakraborty who was Respondent no. 3 in the main appeal. The application is addressed to this Tribunal and even though it is not in the prescribed format, we have treated it as Miscellaneous Application and the same has been registered by the registry. The third respondent was duly served in the main appeal but she chose not to appear. In this application which purports to have been filed on her behalf, wild and baseless allegations have been made against the Securities and Exchange Board of India which merit no consideration. The application does not even spare us. Some contemptuous averments have been made in the application. The applicant wants the respondent Board to prosecute its recalcitrant officials and we may quote the prayer made in the application.

“Your lordships are humbly requested for curative and holistic judgement.”

We have not been able to understand the prayer and we do not appreciate all that has been stated in the application. The application does not merit any consideration. It is accordingly dismissed.
