

BEFORE THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE BOARD OF INDIA, MUMBAI
CORAM: S. RAMAN, WHOLE TIME MEMBER

ORDER

Under Sections 11, 11(4), 11A and 11B of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, in the matter of Vamshi Chemicals Limited (presently known as En Aromatic & Petro Chemicals Limited) and its Directors, viz. Shri Kishan Pal Singh (PAN: AVVPS8411M), Shri Chhotelal Shukla (PAN: CLJPS2300B), Shri Vishwa Bandhu Vashistha (PAN: ADFPV9924N), Shri Deenanath Maurya (PAN: BJJPM1012K) and Shri Mukesh Kumar Khare (PAN: BBVPK0966N).

1. Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI") received a letter dated July 12, 2012 from Serious Fraud Investigation Office ("SFIO") seeking information about any action taken by SEBI against Vamshi Chemicals Limited ("VCL") for violation of provisions of SEBI Act, 1992. Further, SEBI received a news article on April 25, 2013 containing a State-wise list of companies against which complaints were received for indulging in illegal fund raising activity. VCL was one such company included in the said list.
- 2.1 In order to ascertain the nature of fund mobilizing activity of VCL, SEBI vide letter dated May 14, 2013 sought information/documents from VCL within 2 weeks from the date of receipt of the letter. VCL did not reply to the said letter. Meanwhile, SEBI observed from internet search that there were allegations against VCL for raising money from public under the garb of private placements without adhering to the private placement norms. In this regard, SEBI vide letter dated November 22, 2013, advised VCL to furnish the following information with regard to issuance of preference shares, viz. —
 - i. Certified copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company;
 - ii. Audited Balance Sheet and Profit & Loss Account of the company for the last 10 years;
 - iii. Name, addresses and occupation of all the promoters/directors of the company;
 - iv. Statement of mobilization of funds through issue of preference shares duly certified by the Statutory Auditors of the company.
 - v. Names and details of the Key Managerial Personnel of the company;

- vi. Copies of Annual Report and Annual Return filed with Registrar of Companies ("ROC") since incorporation.
- vii. Copies of Tax Returns filed with the Income Tax authorities since incorporation.
- viii. Other information in respect of each and every series of debentures/preference shares issued by the company, viz. –
 - a. Details regarding filing of Prospectus/Red Herring Prospectus with ROC.
 - b. Date of opening and closing of the subscription list;
 - c. The details of opening and closing of the issue, quantum of funds raised and proposed to be raised.
 - d. List of agents with addresses who have been appointed by the company.
 - e. Details regarding the number of application forms circulated inviting subscription;
 - f. Details regarding the number of applications received and number of allottees;
 - g. The number of allottees and the list of allottees along with their name, address, number of preference shares issued, folio number, certificate number, distinctive number and amount collected from each allottee since incorporation till date;
 - h. Details regarding subscription amount raised;
 - i. Date of allotment of preference shares;
 - j. Copies of the minutes of Board/Committee meeting in which the resolution has been passed for issue and allotment of preference shares;
 - k. Date of dispatch of preference share Certificates, etc.;
 - l. Copies of application forms, RHP, pamphlets, advertisements and other promotional material circulated for issuance of preference shares;
 - m. Terms and conditions of the issue of debenture/preference shares.
- ix. Any other information in connection with the matter.

2.2 In response thereto, VCL vide letter dated December 07, 2013, submitted the following documents, viz. –

- i. Copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company;
- ii. Audited Balance Sheet and Profit & Loss Account of the company for the last 10 years;
- iii. Name, addresses and occupation of all the directors of the company as per attached list;
- iv. Name and details of the Key Managerial Person of the company as per attached list;
- v. Copy of annual returns filed with ROC for last eight years;
- vi. Copy of income tax returns for last 10 years.

2.3 As the information/documents furnished by VCL was inadequate, SEBI vide letter dated June 13, 2014 advised VCL to furnish the complete documents pertaining to issue of preference shares. VCL vide letter dated June 20, 2014 sought extension of time for 15 days to submit the entire documents to SEBI.

2.4 Thereafter, SEBI vide letter dated June 24, 2014 advised VCL to provide all the information sought within 3 days from the date of receipt of the letter. VCL, vide letter dated June 26, 2014, while furnishing duly certified statement of mobilization of funds through issue of redeemable cumulative preference shares by private placement and the list of preference shareholders for each financial year, inter alia stated as under:

"the issue of preference shares is through private placement and therefore the company does not need to file prospectus/red herring prospectus with the ROC."

3. The material available on record i.e. correspondences exchanged between SEBI and VCL along with the documents contained therein and the information obtained from the filings made by VCL with ROC have been perused. On an examination of the same, it is observed that –

- i. VCL was incorporated on November 15, 1996, with the ROC, N.C.T of Delhi and Haryana with Corporate Identification Number (CIN) U51311DL1996PLC083297 having its registered office is at 487/88, No. 1 , First Floor , Mangal Bazaar Road , Near Sidh Baba Mandir, Peera Garhi , New Delhi – 110087.
- ii. The Directors of VCL are Shri Kishan Pal Singh, Shri Chhotelal Shukla, Shri Vishwa Bandhu Vashistha, Shri Deenanath Maurya and Shri Mukesh Kumar Khare.
- iii. VCL issued "Redeemable Cumulative Preference Shares" ("Offer of RCPS") during the financial years 2003-04, 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07, 2009-10 and 2010-11, details of the same are tabulated as under:-

Year	No. of Securities	Amount Per Share (₹)	No. of persons to whom issued (Approx.)	Total Amount Raised (₹)
2003-04	41000	1000	5472	4,10,00,000
2004-05	255444	1000	36597	25,54,44,000
2005-06	60585	1000	7459	6,05,85,000
2006-07	1550	1000	93	15,50,000
2009-10	229390	1000	34666	22,93,90,000
2010-11	26999	1000	4718	2,69,99,000
Total	614968	1000	89005	61,49,68,000

4.1 In the context of the abovementioned details of the Offer of RCPS, the issue for determination is whether the mobilization of funds by VCL through the aforesaid is in accordance with the provisions of the SEBI Act, 1992 ("SEBI Act"); the Companies Act, 1956 read with the Companies Act, 2013; the SEBI (Disclosure and Investor Protection) Guidelines, 2000 ("DIP Guidelines") read with the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009 ("ICDR Regulations").

4.2 I note that the jurisdiction of SEBI over various provisions of the Companies Act in the case of public companies, whether listed or unlisted, when they issue and transfer securities flows from the provisions of Section 55A of the Companies Act. While examining the scope of Section 55A of the Companies Act, 1956, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Sahara India Real Estate Corporation Limited & Ors. vs. SEBI (Civil Appeal no. 9813 of 2011) (Judgment dated August 31, 2012) (hereinafter referred to as the "Sahara Case"), had observed that:

"We, therefore, hold that, so far as the provisions enumerated in the opening portion of Section 55A of the Companies Act, so far as they relate to issue and transfer of securities and non-payment of dividend is concerned, SEBI has the power to administer in the case of listed public companies and in the case of those public companies which intend to get their securities listed on a recognized stock exchange in India."

4.3 In this regard –

- i. Reference is also made to Sections 67(1) and 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956, which are reproduced as under:

"67. (1) Any reference in this Act or in the articles of a company to offering shares or debentures to the public shall, subject to any provision to the contrary contained in this Act and subject also to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), be construed as including a reference to offering them to any section of the public, whether selected as members or debenture holders of the company concerned or as clients of the person issuing the prospectus or in any other manner.

(2) ...

(3) No offer or invitation shall be treated as made to the public by virtue of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, if the offer or invitation can properly be regarded, in all the circumstances-

- (a) as not being calculated to result, directly or indirectly, in the shares or debentures becoming available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer or invitation; or*
(b) otherwise as being a domestic concern of the persons making and receiving the offer or invitation

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply in a case where the offer or invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures is made to fifty persons or more:*

Provided further that nothing contained in the first proviso shall apply to non-banking financial companies or public financial institutions specified in section 4A of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956)."*

- ii. While examining the scope of Section 67 of the Companies Act, 1956, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the Sahara Case observed that:

"Section 67(1) deals with the offer of shares and debentures to the public and Section 67(2) deals with invitation to the public to subscribe for shares and debentures and how those expressions are to be understood, when reference is made to the Act or in the articles of a company. The emphasis in Section 67(1) and (2) is on the "section of the public". Section 67(3) states that no offer or invitation shall be treated as made to the public, by virtue of subsections (1) and (2), that is to any section of the public, if the offer or invitation is not being calculated to result, directly or indirectly, in the shares or debentures becoming available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer or invitation or otherwise as being a domestic concern of the persons making and receiving the offer or invitations. Section 67(3) is, therefore, an exception to Sections 67(1) and (2). If the circumstances mentioned in clauses (1) and (b) of Section 67(3) are satisfied, then the offer/invitation would not be treated as being made to the public.

The first proviso to Section 67(3) was inserted by the Companies (Amendment) Act, 2000 w.e.f. 13.12.2000, which clearly indicates, nothing contained in Sub-section (3) of Section 67 shall apply in a case where the offer or invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures is made to fifty persons or more. ...

Resultantly, if an offer of securities is made to fifty or more persons, it would be deemed to be a public issue, even if it is of domestic concern or proved that the shares or debentures are not available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those received the offer or invitation. ...

I may, therefore, indicate, subject to what has been stated above, in India that any share or debenture issue beyond forty nine persons, would be a public issue attracting all the relevant provisions of the SEBI Act, regulations framed thereunder, the Companies Act, pertaining to the public issue. ..."

- iii. In the instant matter, for ascertaining whether the Offer of RCPS is a public issue or an issue on private placement basis in accordance with Section 67 of the Companies Act, 1956, the number of subscribers is of utmost importance.
 - a. Under the Offer of RCPS, it is observed that during the Financial Years 2003-04, 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07, 2009-10 and 2010-11, VCL allotted RCPS of ₹1000 each to 89005 individuals/investors. VCL mobilized funds amounting to ₹61,49,68,000/- through the aforesaid allotments. These facts prima facie indicate that the Offer of RCPS was a public issue of securities since the number of persons to whom such Offer was made, was above the limit of forty-nine persons as prescribed under Section 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956.
 - b. It is noted that VCL is not a non-banking financial company registered with RBI or a public financial institution within the meaning of Section 4A of the Companies Act, 1956 and hence is not covered under the second proviso to Section 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956.
 - c. In view of the above, the Offer of RCPS by VCL would prima facie qualify as a public issue under the first proviso to Section 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956. In this regard, it is pertinent to note that by virtue of Section 55A of the Companies Act, Section 67 of that Act, so far as it relates to issue and transfer of securities, shall also be administered by SEBI.

4.4 I note that –

- i. From the abovementioned, it will follow that since the Offer of RCPS is a public issue of securities, such securities shall also have to be listed on a recognized stock exchange as mandated under Section 73 of the Companies Act, 1956. In this regard, reference is made to Sections 73 of the Companies Act, 1956 of which sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) are relevant in the instant case, which is reproduced as under:

"73. (1) Every company intending to offer shares or debentures to the public for subscription by the issue of a prospectus shall, before such issue, make an application to one or more recognised stock exchanges for permission for the shares or debentures intending to be so offered to be dealt with in the stock exchange or each such stock exchange.

(1A) ...

(2) Where the permission has not been applied under subsection (1) or such permission having been applied for, has not been granted as aforesaid, the company shall forthwith repay without interest all moneys received from applicants in pursuance of the prospectus, and, if any such money is not repaid within eight days after the company becomes liable to repay it, the company and every director of the company who is an officer in default shall, on and from the expiry of the eighth day, be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at such rate, not less than four per cent and not more than fifteen per cent, as may be prescribed, having regard to the length of the period of delay in making the repayment of such money.

(3) All moneys received as aforesaid shall be kept in a separate bank account maintained with a Scheduled Bank 1 [until the permission has been granted, or where an appeal has been preferred against the refusal to grant such. permission, until the disposal of the appeal, and the money standing in such separate account shall, where the permission has not been applied for as aforesaid or has not been granted, be repaid within the time and in the manner specified in sub- section (2)]; and if default is made in complying with this sub- section, the company, and every officer of the company who is in default, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees."

- ii. In the Sahara Case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India also examined Section 73 of the Companies Act, 1956, wherein it observed that –

"Section 73(1) of the Act casts an obligation on every company intending to offer shares or debentures to the public to apply on a stock exchange for listing of its securities. Such companies have no option or choice but to list their securities on a recognized stock exchange, once they invite subscription from over forty nine investors from the public. If an unlisted company expresses its intention, by conduct or otherwise, to offer its securities to the public by the issue of a prospectus, the legal obligation to make an application on a recognized stock exchange for listing starts. Sub-section (1A) of Section 73 gives indication of what are the particulars to be stated in such a prospectus. The consequences of not applying for the permission under sub-section (1) of Section 73 or not granting of permission is clearly stipulated in sub-section (3) of Section 73. Obligation to refund the amount collected from the public with interest is also mandatory as per Section 73(2) of the Act. Listing is, therefore, a legal responsibility of the company which offers securities to the public, provided offers are made to more than 50 persons."

- iii. In the facts of the instant case, since the Offer of RCPS was made to fifty persons or more by VCL, the same will attract the requirement of compulsory listing before a recognized stock exchange in terms of Section 73(1) of the Companies Act, 1956. It therefore prima facie appears that VCL has violated the provisions of Section 73(1) of the Companies Act, 1956, since it has failed to ensure listing of the securities issued under the Offer of RCPS with a recognised stock exchange.
- iv. As per Section 73(2) of the Companies Act, 1956, the obligation to refund the amount with interest that was collected from investors under the Offer of RCPS is mandatory on VCL. In this regard, there is no evidence on record to indicate whether or not VCL has paid interest to the investors within 8 days, as per the aforesaid Section. In view of the same, I find that VCL has prima facie not complied with the provisions of Section 73(2) of the Companies Act, 1956.
- v. Section 73(3) of Companies Act, 1956 states that all moneys received shall be kept in a separate bank account maintained with a Scheduled Bank and if default is made in complying with this sub-section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees. In the instant case, there is no evidence on record to indicate whether or not funds received from the investors under the Offer of RPS has been kept in separate bank account by VCL. In view of the same, I find that VCL has prima facie not complied with the provisions of Section 73(3) of Companies Act, 1956.

- 4.5 Under Section 2(36) read with Section 60 of the Companies Act, 1956, a company needs to register its prospectus with the RoC, before making a public offer or issuing the prospectus. As per the aforesaid Section 2(36), "prospectus" means any document described or issued as a prospectus and includes any notice, circular, advertisement or other document inviting deposits from the public or inviting offers from the public for the subscription or purchase of any shares in, or debentures of, a body corporate. As mentioned above, since the Offer of RCPS was made to fifty persons or more, it has to be construed as a public offer. Having made a public offer, VCL was required to register a prospectus with the RoC under Section 60 of the Companies Act, 1956. Based on the material available on record, I find that VCL has not complied with the provisions of Section 60 of Companies Act, 1956.
- 4.6 Under Section 56(1) of the Companies Act, 1956, every prospectus issued by or on behalf of a company, shall state the matters specified in Part I and set out the reports specified in Part II of Schedule II of that Act. Further, as per Section 56(3) of the Companies Act, 1956, no one shall issue any form of application for shares in or debentures of a company, unless the form is accompanied by abridged prospectus, contain disclosures as specified. Based on the material available on record, I find that VCL has not complied with the provisions of Section 56(1) and 56(3) of the Companies Act, 1956 and therefore, has prima facie violated the aforesaid provisions.
- 4.7 As per Section 465(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, the Companies Act, 1956, "shall stand repealed". However, Section 465(2)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, provides that:

"(2)Notwithstanding the repeal under sub-section (1) of the repealed enactments,—

(a) anything done or any action taken or purported to have been done or taken, including any rule, notification, inspection, order or notice made or issued or any appointment or declaration made or any operation undertaken or any direction given or any proceeding taken or any penalty, punishment, forfeiture or fine imposed under the repealed enactments shall, insofar as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act;"

4.8 I also note that SEBI framed the DIP Guidelines, in exercise of the powers conferred under the SEBI Act. In the words of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Sahara Case, "DIP Guidelines had statutory force since they were framed by SEBI in exercise of its powers conferred on it under Sections 11 and 11A of the SEBI Act. Powers have been conferred on SEBI to protect the interests of the investors in securities and regulate the issue of prospectus, offer documents or advertisement soliciting money through the issue of prospectus. Section 11 of the Act, it may be noted has been incorporated, evidently to protect the interests of investors whose securities are legally required to be listed. DIP Guidelines were implemented by SEBI with regard to the listed and unlisted companies, which made public offer, until it was replaced by ICDR 2009". In this regard, I observe prima facie that the Company has not complied with the provisions of the DIP Guidelines including the following clauses:

- a) Clause 2.1.1. – (Filing of offer document)
- b) Clause 2.1.4 – (Application for listing)
- c) Clause 2.1.5 – (Issue of securities in dematerialized form),
- d) Clause 2.8 – (Means of finance),
- e) Clause 4.1 – (Promoters contribution in a public issue by unlisted companies),
- f) Clause 4.11 – (Lock-in of minimum specified promoters contribution in public issues),
- g) Clause 4.14 – (Lock-In of pre-issue share capital of an unlisted company)
- h) Clause 5.3.1 – (Memorandum of understanding),
- i) Clause 5.3.3 – (Due Diligence Certificate)
- j) Clause 5.3.5 – (Undertaking),
- k) Clause 5.3.6 – (List Of Promoters Group And Other Details),
- l) Clause 5.4 – (Appointment of intermediaries)
- m) Clause 5.6 – (Offer document to be made public)
- n) Clause 5.6A – (Pre-issue Advertisement)
- o) Clause 5.7 – (Despatch of issue material)
- p) Clause 5.8 – (No complaints certificate)
- q) Clause 5.9 – (Mandatory collection centres including Clause 5.9.1 (Minimum number of collection centres)
- r) Clause 5.10 – (Authorised Collection Agents)
- s) Clause 5.12.1 – (Appointment of compliance officer)

- t) Clause 5.13 – (Abridged prospectus)
- u) Clause 6.0 – (Contents of offer documents)
- v) Clause 8.3 – (Rule 19(2)(b) of SC(R) Rules, 1957)
- w) Clause 8.8.1 – (Opening & closing date of subscription of securities)
- x) Clause 9 – (Guidelines on advertisements by Issuer Company)
- y) Clause 10.1 – (Requirement of credit rating)
- z) Clause 10.5 – (Redemption)

4.9 As per Regulation 111(1) of the ICDR Regulations, the DIP Guidelines, "shall stand rescinded". However, Regulation 111(2) of the ICDR Regulations, provides that:

"(2)Notwithstanding the repeal under sub-section (1) of the repealed enactments,—

(a) anything done or any action taken or purported to have been done or taken including observation made in respect of any draft offer document, any enquiry or investigation commenced or show cause notice issued in respect of the said Guidelines shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these regulations;

(b) any offer document, whether draft or otherwise, filed or application made to the Board under the said Guidelines and pending before it shall be deemed to have been filed or made under the corresponding provisions of these regulations."

4.10 Upon a consideration of the preceding paragraphs, I am of the view that VCL is prima facie engaged in fund mobilising activity from the public through the Offer of RCPS and as such violated the aforementioned provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 (Section 56, Section 60 read with Section 2(36), Section 67 and 73) read with Section 465 of the Companies Act, 2013; the DIP Guidelines read with ICDR Regulations.

5. Protecting the interest of investors is the foremost mandate for SEBI. For this purpose, SEBI can exercise its jurisdiction under Sections 11(1), 11A, 11B and 11(4) of the SEBI Act read with Section 55A of the Companies Act, 1956 and Section 465 of the Companies Act, 2013 over companies who issue securities to fifty persons or more, but failed to comply with the applicable provisions of the aforesaid Companies Acts; the DIP Guidelines read with ICDR Regulations (as mentioned in paragraphs 4.1–4.10 above). In the instant matter, steps have to be taken to ensure only legitimate fund raising activities are carried on by VCL and no investors are defrauded. In light of the same, I find there is no other alternative but to take recourse through an interim action against VCL and its Directors for preventing it from further carrying on with its fund mobilising activity under the Offer of RCPS.

6. In view of the foregoing, I, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me under Sections 11, 11(4), 11A and 11B of the SEBI Act and Clause 17 of the DIP Guidelines read with Regulation 111 of the ICDR Regulations, hereby issue the following directions –

- i. VCL shall not mobilize any further funds from investors through the Offer of RCPS or through the issuance of equity shares or any other securities to the public and/or invite subscription, in any manner whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, till further directions;
- ii. VCL and its Directors, viz. Shri Kishan Pal Singh (PAN: AVVPS8411M) , Shri Chhotelal Shukla (PAN: CLJPS2300B), Shri Vishwa Bandhu Vashistha (PAN: ADFPV9924N), Shri Deenanath Maurya (PAN: BJJPM1012K) and Shri Mukesh Kumar Khare (PAN: BBVPK0966N) are prohibited from issuing prospectus or any offer document or issue advertisement for soliciting money from the public for the issue of securities, in any manner whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, till further orders;
- iii. VCL and its Directors are restrained from accessing the securities market and further prohibited from buying, selling or otherwise dealing in the securities market, either directly or indirectly, till further directions;
- iv. VCL and its Directors shall provide a full inventory of all its assets and properties;
- v. VCL and its Directors shall not dispose of any of the properties or alienate or encumber any of the assets owned/acquired by it through the Offer of RCPS without prior permission from SEBI;
- vi. VCL and its Directors shall not divert any funds raised from public at large through the Offer of RCPS which are kept in the bank account(s) and/or in the custody of VCL.

7. The above directions shall take effect immediately and shall be in force until further orders.

8. The prima facie observations contained in this Order are based on the material available on record i.e. correspondences exchanged between SEBI and VCL along with the documents contained therein and the information obtained from the filings made by VCL with ROC. In this context, VCL and its abovementioned Directors may, within 21 days from the date of receipt of this Order, file their reply, if any, to this Order and may also indicate whether they desire to avail themselves an opportunity of personal hearing on a date and time to be fixed on a specific request made in that regard.

9. This Order is without prejudice to the right of SEBI to take any other action that may be initiated against VCL and its abovementioned Directors in accordance with law.
