2.2.1 The letter addressed to SFBL was returned undelivered with the remarks 'Not known'. However, the letters addressed to Shri Toofan Chandra Dey, Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal and Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal, were delivered.

2.2.2 Shri Toofan Chandra Dey replied vide letter dated September 10, 2014, inter alia submitting that the information sought was in the custody of Shri Saugata Ganguly.

2.3 Subsequent to the above, reminder letters dated October 08, 2014, were sent to Shri Toofan Chandra Dey, Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal and Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal.

2.4 Till date, no information has been received from SFBL or its Directors, Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal and Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal.

2.5 Information regarding SFBL was obtained from the Ministry of Corporate Affairs' website i.e. MCA 21 Portal.

3. The material available on record i.e. the abovementioned complaints received by SEBI and information obtained from the Ministry of Corporate Affairs' website i.e. MCA 21 Portal, have been perused. On an examination of the same, it is observed that –

- i. SFBL was incorporated on January 6, 2012, with the ROC, Kolkata with CIN as U15400WB2012PLC171719. Its Registered Office is at Ramakrishna Pally, Dakshin Ansha, Rahara–20, Khardaha, Kolkata –700118, West Bengal, India.

- ii. The Promoters of SFBL are Shri Toofan Chandra Dey, Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal, Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal, Shri Saugata Ganguly, Shri Anirudhha Bhattacharya and Shri Gopa Ghosh.
- iii. The present Directors of SFBL are Shri Toofan Chandra Dey, Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal and Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal.
- iv. Shri Saugata Ganguly and Shri Anirudhha Bhattacharya, who were earlier Directors in SFBL, have since resigned.
- v. From the material available on record, it is observed that SFBL issued "Secured Non – Convertible Redeemable Debentures" ("Offer of NCDs") to investors during the Financial Years 2011–12 and 2012–13, details of which are provided below –

Type of Security	Year	No. of persons to whom preference shares were allotted	Total Amount (₹ in Crores)
Secured Non – Convertible Redeemable Debentures	2011–12	43	50.00
	2012–13	63	0.11
Total		*109	^50.11
*^No. of allottees and amount raised are taken from the documents submitted with the complaints received by SEBI. However, actual no. of allottees and amount mobilized could be more than the above indicated figures.

- vi. From the material available on record, it is also observed SFBL created charge for an amount of ₹50 Crores on January 9, 2012 and appointed Shankalp Secured Debenture Trust (represented by its Trustees, viz. Shri Amit Samanta and Shri Jagadish Chandra Nag), as Debenture Trustee for the Offer of NCDs by that company.
- 4.1 In the context of the abovementioned details of the Offer of NCDs, the issue for determination in the instant matter is whether the mobilization of funds by SFBL through the aforesaid, is in accordance with the provisions of the SEBI Act, 1992 ("SEBI Act") read with the SEBI (Issue and Listing of Debt Securities), Regulations, 2008 ("Debt Securities Regulations"); the Companies Act, 1956.

- 4.2 I note that the jurisdiction of SEBI over various provisions of the Companies Act in the case of public companies, whether listed or unlisted, when they issue and transfer securities, flows from the provisions of Section 55A of the Companies Act. While examining the scope of Section 55A of the Companies Act, 1956, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Sahara India Real Estate Corporation Limited & Ors. vs. SEBI (Civil Appeal no. 9813 of 2011) (Judgment dated August 31, 2012) (hereinafter referred to as the "Sahara Case"), had observed:

"We, therefore, hold that, so far as the provisions enumerated in the opening portion of Section 55A of the Companies Act, so far as they relate to issue and transfer of securities and non-payment of dividend is concerned, SEBI has the power to administer in the case of listed public companies and in the case of those public companies which intend to get their securities listed on a recognized stock exchange in India."

- 4.3 In this regard –

- i. Reference is also made to Sections 67(1) and 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956, which are reproduced as under:

"67. Construction of reference to offering shares or debentures to the public, etc.

67. (1) Any reference in this Act or in the articles of a company to offering shares or debentures to the public shall, subject to any provision to the contrary contained in this Act and subject also to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4), be construed as including a reference to offering them to any section of the public, whether selected as members or debenture holders of the company concerned or as clients of the person issuing the prospectus or in any other manner.

(2) Any reference in this Act or in the articles of a company to invitations to the public to subscribe for shares or debentures shall, subject as aforesaid, be construed as including a reference to invitations to subscribe for them extended to any section of the public, whether selected as members or debenture holders of the company concerned or as clients of the person issuing the prospectus or in any other manner.

(3) No offer or invitation shall be treated as made to the public by virtue of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, if the offer or invitation can properly be regarded, in all the circumstances-

(a) as not being calculated to result, directly or indirectly, in the shares or debentures becoming available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer or invitation; or

(b) otherwise as being a domestic concern of the persons making and receiving the offer or invitation. Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply in a case where the offer or invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures is made to fifty persons or more:

Provided further that nothing contained in the first proviso shall apply to non-banking financial companies or public financial institutions specified in section 4A of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956)."*

- ii. While examining the scope of Section 67 of the Companies Act, 1956, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the Sahara Case observed that:

"Section 67(1) deals with the offer of shares and debentures to the public and Section 67(2) deals with invitation to the public to subscribe for shares and debentures and how those expressions are to be understood, when reference is made to the Act or in the articles of a company. The emphasis in Section 67(1) and (2) is on the "section of the public". Section 67(3) states that no offer or invitation shall be treated as made to the public, by virtue of subsections (1) and (2), that is to any section of the public, if the offer or invitation is not being calculated to result, directly or indirectly, in the shares or debentures becoming available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those receiving the offer or invitation or otherwise as being a domestic concern of the persons making and receiving the offer or invitations. Section 67(3) is, therefore, an exception to Sections 67(1) and (2). If the circumstances mentioned in clauses (1) and (b) of Section 67(3) are satisfied, then the offer/ invitation would not be treated as being made to the public.

The first proviso to Section 67(3) was inserted by the Companies (Amendment) Act, 2000 w.e.f. 13.12.2000, which clearly indicates, nothing contained in Sub-section (3) of Section 67 shall apply in a case where the offer or invitation to subscribe for shares or debentures is made to fifty persons or more. ...

Resultantly, if an offer of securities is made to fifty or more persons, it would be deemed to be a public issue, even if it is of domestic concern or proved that the shares or debentures are not available for subscription or purchase by persons other than those received the offer or invitation. ...

I may, therefore, indicate, subject to what has been stated above, in India that any share or debenture issue beyond forty nine persons, would be a public issue attracting all the relevant provisions of the SEBI Act, regulations framed thereunder, the Companies Act, pertaining to the public issue. ..."

- iii. In the instant matter, for ascertaining whether the Offer of NCDs is a public issue or an issue on private placement basis in accordance with Section 67 of the Companies Act, 1956, the number of subscribers is of utmost importance.
- a. Under the Offer of NCDs, it is observed that during the Financial Years 2011–12 and 2012–13, SFBL allotted NCDs to a total of 106 individuals/investors and mobilized an amount of ₹50.11 Crores (Table at paragraph 3(v) of page 3). The number of investors to whom allotments were made under the Offer of NCDs during the Financial Year 2012–13 coupled with the amount mobilized therein prima facie indicate that such Offer was a public issue of securities, as prescribed under the first proviso to Section 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956.
- b. However, it is noted that the number of allottees and amount raised under the Offer of NCDs for the abovementioned Financial Years, have only been taken from the documents submitted with the complaints received by SEBI, against SFBL, since no details were available in respect of such Offer on the MCA21 Portal. Therefore, the actual number of allottees and amount mobilized by SFBL could be many more times than the figure of 106 individuals/investors.
- c. It is observed that SFBL is not stated to be a Non–banking financial company or public financial institution within the meaning of Section 4A of the Companies Act, 1956. In view of the aforesaid, I, therefore, find that SFBL is not covered under the second proviso to Section 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956.
- d. In view of the above, the Offer of NCDs by SFBL, would prima facie qualify as a public issue under the first proviso to Section 67(3) of the Companies Act, 1956. In this regard, it is pertinent to note that by virtue of Section 55A of the Companies Act, 1956, Section 67 of that Act, so far as it relates to issue and transfer of securities, shall also be administered by SEBI.

4.4 I note that –

- i. From the abovementioned, it will follow that since the Offer of NCDs is a public issue of securities, such securities shall also have to be listed on a recognized stock exchange, as mandated under Section 73 of the Companies Act, 1956. In this regard, reference is made to Sections 73 of the Companies Act, 1956, of which sub-Sections (1), (2) and (3) are relevant for the instant case, which is reproduced as under:

"73. (1) Every company intending to offer shares or debentures to the public for subscription by the issue of a prospectus shall, before such issue, make an application to one or more recognised stock exchanges for permission for the shares or debentures intending to be so offered to be dealt with in the stock exchange or each such stock exchange.

(1A) Where a prospectus, whether issued generally or not, states that an application under sub-section (1) has been made for permission for the shares or debentures offered thereby to be dealt in one or more recognized stock exchanges, such prospectus shall state the name of the stock exchange or, as the case may be, each such stock exchange, and any allotment made on an application in pursuance of such prospectus shall, whenever made, be void, if the permission has not been granted by the stock exchange or each such stock exchange, as the case may be, before the expiry of ten weeks from the date of the closing of the subscription lists:

Provided that where an appeal against the decision of any recognized stock exchange refusing permission for the shares or debentures to be dealt in on that stock exchange has been preferred under section 22 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956), such allotment shall not be void until the dismissal of the appeal.

(2) Where the permission has not been applied under subsection (1) or such permission having been applied for, has not been granted as aforesaid, the company shall forthwith repay without interest all moneys received from applicants in pursuance of the prospectus, and, if any such money is not repaid within eight days after the company becomes liable to repay it, the company and every director of the company who is an officer in default shall, on and from the expiry of the eighth day, be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at such rate, not less than four per cent and not more than fifteen per cent, as may be prescribed, having regard to the length of the period of delay in making the repayment of such money.

(3) All moneys received as aforesaid shall be kept in a separate bank account maintained with a Scheduled Bank 1 [until the permission has been granted, or where an appeal has been preferred against the refusal to grant such. permission, until the disposal of the appeal, and the money standing in such separate account shall, where the permission has not been applied for as aforesaid or has not been granted, be repaid within the time and in the manner specified in sub- section (2)]; and if default is made in complying with this sub- section, the company, and every officer of the company who is in default, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees."

- ii. In the Sabara Case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India also examined Section 73 of the Companies Act, 1956, wherein it observed that –

"Section 73(1) of the Act casts an obligation on every company intending to offer shares or debentures to the public to apply on a stock exchange for listing of its securities. Such companies have no option or choice but to list their securities on a recognized stock exchange, once they invite subscription from over forty nine investors from the public. If an unlisted company expresses its intention, by conduct or otherwise, to offer its securities to the public by the issue of a prospectus, the legal obligation to make an application on a recognized stock exchange for listing starts. Sub-section (1A) of Section 73 gives indication of what are the particulars to be stated in such a prospectus. The consequences of not applying for the permission under sub-section (1) of Section 73 or not granting of permission is clearly stipulated in sub-section (3) of Section 73. Obligation to refund the amount collected from the public with interest is also mandatory as per Section 73(2) of the Act. Listing is, therefore, a legal responsibility of the company which offers securities to the public, provided offers are made to more than 50 persons.

... Section 73(2) says that every company and every director of the company who is an officer in default, shall be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at such rate, not less than four per cent and not more than fifteen per cent, as may be prescribed. The scope of the above mentioned provisions came up for consideration before this Court in Raymond Synthetics Ltd. & Ors. Vs. Union of India (supra), wherein the Court held that in a case where the company has not applied for listing on a stock exchange, the consequences will flow from the company's disobedience of the law, the liability to pay interest arises as from the date of receipt of the amounts, for the company ought not to have received any such amount in response to the prospectus. I am, therefore, of the view that since Saharas had violated the listing provisions and collected huge amounts from the public in disobedience of law, SEBI is justified in directing refund of the amount with interest."

- iii. Having regard to the abovementioned observations of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, since the Offer of NCDs is prima facie a public issue in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, the same will attract the requirement of compulsory listing before a recognized stock exchange in terms of Section 73(1) of the Companies Act, 1956 and also compliance with the provisions of Sections 73(2) and 73(3) of that Act.
- iv. In the facts of the instant case, it prima facie appears that SFBL has violated the provisions of Section 73 of the Companies Act, 1956, in respect of the Offer of NCDs.

- 4.5 Under Section 2(36) read with Section 60 of the Companies Act, 1956, a company needs to register its prospectus with the ROC, before making a public offer or issuing the prospectus. As per the aforesaid Section 2(36), "prospectus" means any document described or issued as a prospectus and includes any notice, circular, advertisement or other document inviting deposits from the public or inviting offers from the public for the subscription or purchase of any shares in, or debentures of, a body corporate. As mentioned above, since the Offer of NCDs was made to fifty persons or more, it has to be construed as a public offer. Having made a public issue, SFBL was required to register a prospectus with the ROC under Section 60 of the Companies Act, 1956. I find that there is no evidence on record to indicate that SFBL has registered a prospectus with the ROC. In view of the same, I find that SFBL has prima facie not complied with the provisions of Section 60 of Companies Act, 1956.
- 4.6 Under Section 56(1) of the Companies Act, 1956, every prospectus issued by or on behalf of a company, shall state the matters specified in Part I and set out the reports specified in Part II of Schedule II of that Act. Further, as per Section 56(3) of the Companies Act, 1956, no one shall issue any form of application for shares in or debentures of a company, unless the form is accompanied by abridged prospectus, contain disclosures as specified. Based on the material available on record, I find that SFBL has not complied with the provisions of Section 56(1) and 56(3) of the Companies Act, 1956 and therefore, has prima facie violated the aforesaid provisions.
- 4.7 Under Section 117B of the Companies Act, 1956, no company shall issue a prospectus or a letter of offer to the public for subscription of its debentures, unless it has, before such issue, appointed one or more debenture trustees for such debentures and the company has, on the face of the prospectus or the letter of offer, stated that the debenture trustee or trustees have given their consent to the company to be so appointed. Further, under Section 117C of the Companies Act, 1956, where a company issues debentures, it shall create a debenture redemption reserve for the redemption of such debentures, to which adequate amounts shall be credited, from out of its profits every year until such debentures are redeemed. Based on the material available on record, I find that SFBL has not complied with the provisions of Sections 117B–117C of the Companies Act, 1956 and therefore, has prima facie violated the aforesaid provisions in respect of the Offer of NCDs.

4.8 In addition to the above, reference may be made to the Debt Securities Regulations, which were framed by SEBI in exercise of its powers under Section 30 of the SEBI Act and are applicable to the public issue and listing of debt securities. It may be relevant to note that under the aforesaid Regulations, 'debt securities' have been defined as 'non-convertible debt securities which create or acknowledge indebtedness, and include debenture...' In this context, I find that SFBL, through the Offer of NCDs for the Financial Year 2012–13, which is a public issue of debt securities, has prima facie violated the following provisions of the aforesaid Regulations, which contain inter alia conditions for public issue and listing of debt securities, viz.

- i. Regulation 4(2)(a) – Application for listing of debt securities
- ii. Regulation 4(2)(b) – In-principle approval for listing of debt securities
- iii. Regulation 4(2)(c) – Credit rating has been obtained
- iv. Regulation 4(2)(d) – Dematerialization of debt securities
- v. Regulation 4(4) – Appointment of Debenture Trustee
- vi. Regulation 5(2)(b) – Disclosure requirements in the Offer Document
- vii. Regulation 6 – Filing of draft Offer Document
- viii. Regulation 7 – Mode of disclosure of Offer Document
- ix. Regulation 8 – Advertisements for Public Issues
- x. Regulation 9 – Abridged Prospectus and application forms
- xi. Regulation 12 – Minimum subscription
- xii. Regulation 14 – Prohibition of mis-statements in the Offer Document
- xiii. Regulation 15 – Trust Deed
- xiv. Regulation 17 – Creation of security
- xv. Regulation 19 – Mandatory Listing
- xvi. Regulation 26 – Obligations of the Issuer, etc.

4.9 Upon a consideration of the aforementioned paragraphs, I am of the view that SFBL is prima facie engaged in fund mobilising activity from the public, through the Offer of NCDs and as a result of the aforesaid activity has violated the aforementioned provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 (Section 56, Section 60 read with Section 2(36), Section 73) and the Debt Securities Regulations.

5.1 From the material available on record, it is observed that SFBL created charge for an amount of ₹50 Crores on January 9, 2012 and appointed Shankalp Secured Debenture Trust (represented by its Trustees, viz. Shri Amit Samanta and Shri Jagadish Chandra Nag), as Debenture Trustee for the Offer of NCDs by that company.

5.2 Section 12(1) of the SEBI Act states that: "No... trustee of trust deed ... shall buy, sell or deal in securities except under, and in accordance with, the conditions of a certificate of registration obtained from the Board in accordance with the regulations made under this Act".

5.3 In addition, Regulation 7 of SEBI (Debenture Trustees) Regulations, 1993 ("Debenture Trustees Regulations"), provides that: "no person should act as a debenture trustee unless he is either –

- i. a scheduled bank carrying on commercial activity; or*
- ii. a public financial institution within the meaning of section 4A of the Companies Act, 1956; or*
- iii. an insurance company; or*
- iv. body corporate."*

5.4 Based on the material available on record, I find that Shankalp Secured Debenture Trust (represented by its Trustees, viz. Shri Amit Samanta and Shri Jagadish Chandra Nag), has acted as unregistered Debenture Trustee, which amounts to violation of the abovementioned provisions of the SEBI Act read with the Debenture Trustee Regulations.

6. I note that under the Offer of NCDs, SFBL allotted NCDs to the public during the Financial Year 2012–13. The past and present Directors and Promoters of SFBL were/are Shri Toofan Chandra Dey, Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal, Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal, Shri Saugata Ganguly, Shri Anirudhha Bhattacharya and Shri Gopa Ghosh. It is alleged that the aforementioned Directors and Promoters are responsible under Section 73(2) of the Companies Act, 1956, read with Section 27(2) of the SEBI Act, for the prima facie contraventions committed by SFBL through the Offer of NCDs.

7. SEBI has a statutory duty to protect the interests of investors in securities and promote the development of, and to regulate, the securities market. Section 11 of the SEBI Act has empowered it to take such measures as it deems fit for fulfilling its legislative mandate. Further, as per the provisions of Section 55A of the Companies Act, 1956, administrative authority on the subjects relating to public issue of securities is exclusively with SEBI. For this purpose, SEBI can exercise its jurisdiction under Sections 11(1), 11A, 11B and 11(4) of the SEBI Act read with Section 55A of the Companies Act, 1956 (as mentioned in paragraphs 4.1–4.9 above). It is pertinent to note that SFBL and its Directors, viz. Shri Tapan Mondal, Shri Kshitish Chandra Mandal, Shri Triveni Prasad Baranwal, have failed to submit the requisite information sought by SEBI. Further, SFBL was not found to be existing at its registered addresses submitted by it in regulatory filings. Steps therefore, have to be taken in the instant matter to ensure only legitimate fund raising activities are carried on by SFBL and no investors are defrauded. In light of the facts in the instant matter, I find that there is no other alternative but to take recourse through an interim action against SFBL and its Directors and Promoters, for preventing that company from further carrying on with its fund mobilising activity under the Offer of NCDs.

8. In view of the foregoing, I, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me under Sections 11, 11(4), 11A and 11B of the SEBI Act read with Section 19 thereof and the Debt Securities Regulations, hereby issue the following directions –

- i. SFBL (PAN: AARCS2055D), shall forthwith cease to mobilize funds from investors through the Offer of NCDs or through the issuance of equity shares or any other securities, to the public and/or invite subscription, in any manner whatsoever, either directly or indirectly till further directions;

- v. SFBL's abovementioned past and present Directors and Promoters, shall provide a full inventory of all their assets and properties;

 - vii. SFBL and its abovementioned present Directors and Promoters, shall not divert any funds raised from public at large through the Offer of NCDs, which are kept in bank account(s) and/or in the custody of SFBL;
 - viii. SFBL and its abovementioned past and present Directors and Promoters, shall co-operate with SEBI and shall furnish all information/documents sought vide letters dated August 29, 2014;

Shri Amit Samanta and Shri Jagadish Chandra Nag)*, are prohibited from continuing with their assignment as debenture trustee in respect of the Offer of NCDs of SFBL and also from taking up any new assignment or involvement in any new issue of debentures, etc. in a similar capacity, from the date of this order till further directions.
9. The above directions shall take effect immediately and shall be in force until further orders.
- 10.1 The prima facie observations contained in this Order are made on the basis of the material available on record i.e. information obtained from the MCA 21 Portal. In this context, SFBL and its abovementioned Directors and Promoters, are advised to show cause as to why suitable directions/prohibitions under Sections 11(1), 11(4), 11A and 11B of the SEBI Act and Section 73(2) of the Companies Act, 1956, read with Section 27(2) of the SEBI Act and the Debt Securities Regulations, including the following, should not be taken/imposed against them:
- i. Directing them jointly and severally to refund money collected through the Offer of NCDs alongwith interest, if any, promised to investors therein;
 - ii. Directing them not to issue prospectus or any offer document or issue advertisement for soliciting money from the public for the issue of securities, in any manner whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, for an appropriate period;
 - iii. Directing them to refrain from accessing the securities market and prohibiting them from buying, selling or otherwise dealing in securities for an appropriate period.
- 10.2 SFBL and its abovementioned Directors and Promoters, may, within 21 days from the date of receipt of this Order, file their replies, if any, to this Order and may also indicate whether they desire to avail themselves an opportunity of personal hearing on a date and time to be fixed on a specific request made in that regard.

- 10.3 Similarly, the Debenture Trustee, viz. Shankalp Secured Debenture Trust (represented by its Trustees, viz. Shri Amit Samanta and Shri Jagadish Chandra Nag), are advised to show cause as to why suitable directions/prohibitions under Sections 11(1), 11(4), 11A and 11B of the SEBI Act read with the Debenture Trustee Regulations including restraining them from accessing the securities market and further restraining them from buying, selling or dealing in securities, in any manner whatsoever, for an appropriate period should not be issued.
- 10.4 The *Debenture Trustee, viz. Shankalp Secured Debenture Trust (represented by its Trustees, viz.
